

I think the NAB petition is a terrible threat against the freedom of choice for consumers and a slap in the face of open market competition. I am a subscriber of the XM service and enjoy the freedom of selecting channels and content of my choice on a pay per subscription basis. The petition of the NAB is nothign more than big business attempting to monopolize the air waves.